The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of Christ Church College, Kanpur, in collaboration with the All-India Women's Conference (AIWC), Kanpur Chapter, successfully organized an Awareness Programme on Financial Literacy on 30th March 2026 at 11:00 a.m. in the Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan Auditorium of the college. The programme aimed to create awareness among students, Faculty members and Non-teaching staff members about the importance of financial literacy and to equip them with essential knowledge and skills for managing their personal finances effectively in today's dynamic economic environment.

The programme was envisaged under the guidance and support of the Principal, Chairperson of the IQAC, Prof. Vinay John Sebastian, whose constant encouragement played a significant role in the successful organization of the event.

The programme commenced with a warm and gracious Welcome Address by Prof. Sujata Chaturvedi, Coordinator, IQAC, who emphasized the significance of financial literacy and the role of educational institutions in promoting financial awareness among the youth. She explained how financial knowledge helps make better decisions and manage the resources wisely. The programme was graced by the presence of the Vice Principal, Prof. Shweta Chand, who extended her full support and encouragement to the initiative. She stated that financial literacy is a vital life skill essential for ensuring personal financial stability and making informed economic decisions.

Mrs. Anita Garg, President, AIWC, along with Mrs. Raminder K. Arora, Secretary, AIWC, from the All India Women's Conference (AIWC), Kanpur Chapter, actively participated in the programme. Mrs. Raminder K. Arora addressed the gathering and shared insights into the organization's initiatives towards financial inclusion and women's empowerment.

Moving next to the important part of the programme, the Resource Person, Shri Arvind Gupta, AGM (Retd.), State Bank of India, was formally introduced by Dr. Pawnesh Mishra. In his informative and engaging session, Shri Gupta discussed various aspects of financial literacy, including the importance of savings, different investment options such as fixed deposits, mutual funds, and insurance, the safe use of digital banking, and awareness about financial fraud and cyber security. His practical approach and real-life examples made the session highly interactive and beneficial for the students.

The workshop concluded with a formal Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr. Rukmani Devi, who expressed sincere thanks to Principal, Vice Principal, Coordinator IQAC, AIWC members, organizers, resource person and supporting staff for their dedication and hard work. She also acknowledged the enthusiastic participation of non-teaching staff and students, which contributed significantly to the success of the event. The presence of faculty members such as Prof. Satya Prakash Singh, Dr. Sanjay Saxena, Prof. Arvind Singh, Dr. Manish Kapoor, Prof. Anindita Bhattacharya, Dr. Ashutosh Kumar, Dr. Ashutosh Dwivedi, Dr. Shubhi Tiwari, and Dr. Ankita Jasmine Lall and others who added to the academic value of the event. The programme was attended by 138 participants, including 03 AIWC members, 35 faculty members from different departments, 34 non-teaching staff and 66 students.
