Outcome Indicator – International Women’s Day Celebration

On March 9, 2026, Christ Church College, Kanpur, through its Gender Sensitization and Women Development Cell (GSWDC), conducted a comprehensive program themed “Celebrating Strength, Equality & Empowerment.” The event was designed to move beyond traditional celebrations by integrating creative arts with intellectual discourse, fostering a deeper understanding of gender advocacy among the student body. The following report outlines the key performance metrics and impact assessments derived from the event.

1. Quantitative Outcome Indicators

Indicator	Data Point	Strategic Analysis
Attendance Volume	300 Students	100% Venue Saturation; the auditorium was fully occupied.
Institutional Reach	10% Participation	Direct engagement of 300 out of 3,000 total students.
Gender Distribution	40:60 (Boys: Girls)	Significant male participation (approx. 120 boys) indicates high sensitization success.
Programmatic Diversity	4 Modules	Success in engaging students through Skit, Dance, Poetry, and Movie Reviews.
Digital Footprint	Official Handles	Event visibility extended to the remaining 90% of students via social media.

2. Qualitative Outcome Indicators

- Gender Sensitization Milestone: The 40% male attendance rate is a primary indicator that the GSWDC has successfully positioned gender equality as a collective responsibility.
- Leadership & Agency: The event featured strong student-led coordination by Aryan, Adarsh, and Pooja, highlighting Cell’s success in developing young advocates.
- Intellectual Maturation: The Movie Review segment moved the discourse to active critical thinking, deconstructing gender stereotypes in media.
- Institutional Alignment: The presence of Prof. Vinay John Sebastian (Patron & Principal) signaled top-down institutional support for GSWDC initiatives.
- Creative Advocacy: Skit and Dance segments translate complex themes into relatable, peer-driven narratives, ensuring high emotional resonance.

Summary of Impact

The celebration achieved optimal resource utilization, reaching the venue's maximum physical capacity. The high level of male engagement and the successful integration of digital outreach have solidified the GSWDC's role as a pivotal driver of social change at Christ Church College. The event effectively met its mandate of 'Celebrating Strength' while laying a data-driven foundation for future gender development programs.
