The event was organized in the Westcott Central Library of Christ Church College which in itself is a rich library which is functional since 1970. In order to celebrate this day two events were organized for the students i.e. Essay writing competition on the topic "Today a Reader, tomorrow a Leader" and Collage Competition on the topic "Books: Ladder to Success".

Prof. Joseph Daniel, Principal, Christ Church College inaugurated the event through a ribbon cutting ceremony that was followed by floral felicitation on Dr. S. R. Ranganathan's photo by the dignitaries. This was followed by the welcome address by Prof. Sujata Chaturvedi, Coordinator, Library Advisory Committee, who gave a warm welcome to all the guests, faculty and students. She also emphasized the importance of Library for all of us. Then Dr. Parul Gupta, Librarian, Westcott Central Library gave a power point presentation on the celebration of National Library Day by informing all about different types of libraries in India and also sharing the benefits of using library. She also discussed about the book bank and e-resources available at Westcott Central Library for Students and Faculties. The inaugural session culminated by the Presidential address given by Prof. Joseph Daniel, Principal, Christ Church College, Kanpur who appealed to the students and faculty to adopt reading habits and make good use of our library.

The Essay Competition was conducted in 3 languages (English, Hindi and Urdu) and 61 students actively participated in it whereas the Collage competition had 10 participants.
