DAY WISE DETAILS

16.9.2023

Today, on 16/9/2023, a one-week workshop on The Art of Stage / Film acting was inaugurated by the Principal Prof. Joseph Daniel. The Coordinator of the Co-Curricular Programs Committee Dr. Sanjay Saksena and Dr. Meet Kamal, Co- Coordinator of the workshop welcomed the Resource person and mentor, renowned actor, director, script writer Shri Vibhanshu Vaibhav. More than 50 participants attended this workshop .

This workshop will be conducted by UP Sangeet Natak Award winning drama and dialogue writer Mr. Vibhanshu Vaibhav Ji. He has received many awards like Natak Akademi Award, Natsamrat Delhi Award, Bharatendu Award, Pandit Pratap Narayan Mishra Young Litterateur Award, All India Human Rights Award, and Urdu Academy Delhi Award.

17.9.2023

On the second day of the workshop, exercises for improving vocal cords were conducted along with dance exercise on the song “jhumka gira re “to increase concentration levels. Besides wandering exercises, speech therapy, vocal exercises etc.

The film “ The Boy in Striped Pyjamas “ was screened to understand the concept of acting and participants were taught the importance of “nukhta” to make a word beautiful and correct.

18.9.2023

On the Third day of the Workshop, an observation task was given to the students wherein, participants played the act of a Kabaddi player, a mother or doctor, teacher. Participants were given tips on how to add punch and power to the roles they were playing.

19.9.2023

On September 19, 2023, the fourth day of the workshop, the importance of relaxation, concentration, observation, belief and emotion were highlighted. In the second session, group wise skits were presented on the given topic, followed by solo acts of street characters on the observation basis.

20.9.2023

On 20-09-23, the participants were divided into 4 teams of 10-11 students each. Each team presented plays on different subjects. Subsequently their performances were analysed and discussed in detail, with suggestions on how they could make their presentation more realistic, attractive and inspiring.

The thrust was on delivering natural acting and getting into the “skin of the character “. It was very beneficial and entertaining for all the participants.

21.9.2023

On the 6th day of the workshop the participants learnt the mechanism of drama and functions. Later, Sri Vibhanshu Vaibhav discussed the portfolio of a character in drama: how to walk, how to react and how to express oneself, so as to impress the audience and connect with them. It is the summation of the whole process and technique of acting and gives a comprehensive and clear picture and dimension of this wonderful art.

22.9.2023

On the Final day of the Workshop, the Valedictory session was conducted by Students Nagendra Pratap Singh and Kaveri. The Coordinator of the Co-Curricular Programs Committee, Dr. Sanjay Saksena welcomed the guests.

All the participants were divided into four teams and they presented and showcased all they had learnt during the workshop, before the jury and audience. The participants were given socially relevant themes for their drama presentations, which they executed with confidence, poise and professional finesse. The jury comprised Dr. Prof. Satya Prakash Singh of the Physics Department and Dr. Vibha Dikshit of the Political Science Department. The presentation was profusely appreciated and applauded by the jury and audience.

At the end of the program the Principal of the college, Professor Joseph Daniel encouraged the participants by giving them certificates.

The Vote of Thanks was presented by Prof. Meet Kamal. All the teaching and non-teaching staff and a large number of students were present for this session.

OUTCOMES OF THE THEATRE WORKSHOP

After a modest start last year, we organized a One Week Theatre workshop. The outcomes of the workshop encompass a broad spectrum of outcomes:

- The participants developed and refined their acting skills, learning to play diverse characters and convey their stories with authenticity.
- Within a week there was a quantum jump in the confidence levels of the participants
- Participants overcame stage fright and engaged in public speaking
- Collaboration and team work , creativity and innovative thinking were fostered
- Theatre intrinsically fosters empathy and a deeper understanding of human experiences, enhancing emotional intelligence.
- Participants were sensitized to socially relevant issues and an enhanced awareness of our rich heritage and culture
- Being mentored by a renowned director, it can serve as a foundation for potential career opportunities in the performing arts.
