College Magazine Release Program

'CHRISTCHURCHIAN', the College Magazine of Christ Church College, Kanpur is a significant platform for students to express their creativity and talent. The magazine has grown over the years, featuring diverse content ranging from literary works, articles, interviews, art and activities of college, contributed by the students, faculty and staff of college. It is a kaleidoscope of creative expression and innovative and thought-provoking content.

The much-anticipated release function of the college magazine, 'CHRISTCHURCHIAN', was held with great enthusiasm on 01.10.2024 in Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan Auditorium of College. The function coincided with the inaugural of one week Theatre workshop also. The event was a vibrant celebration of creativity, talent, and the hard work of students and faculty involved in the production of the magazine. The function was graced by students, faculty members, and special guests, all eager to witness the unveiling of the college's annual publication. The patron of the magazine, College Principal, Prof. Joseph Daniel, lauded the tireless efforts of the entire editorial team, especially the creative inputs of student editors.

The chief editor, Prof. Sujata Chaturvedi, took a moment to acknowledge and thank all those who contributed to the magazine, including writers, poets and artists. Special mention was made of the faculty mentors and student editors who guided the editorial team throughout the process. The highlight of this issue of 'CHRISTCHURCHIAN' was its front and back cover, both of which were hand-painted by students. Also the addition of German and Urdu sections along with English and Hindi sections added to the linguistic and literary diversity of this magazine.

Thus, the College Magazine Release Program was an exciting and meaningful occasion, celebrating the power of words, images, and artistic expression. It served as a reminder of the importance of fostering creativity and collaboration in academic life. The event was a resounding success and left the audience eagerly anticipating the next edition of the college magazine.
